

CONGRATULATIONS

The Kentucky Safety and Health Network, Inc. and the Kentucky Safety and Health Network Foundation, Inc. would like to congratulate and acknowledge the recipients of the 2008-2009 Scholastic Achievement for Education Awards, or "SAFE" Awards. This year the Foundation awarded fourteen SAFE Awards totaling $30,000.

Undergraduate students receiving a SAFE Award in the amount of $2,400 each are:

Richard Haehn, Eastern Kentucky University
Lauren Schuster, Eastern Kentucky University

Matthew Kopecky, Murray State University
Melissa Seay, Murray State University.

Two undergraduate students will graduate in less than one year. The SAFE Award for those individuals is $1,150 each. They are:

Seth Cody Alexander, Eastern Kentucky University Justin Krey, Eastern Kentucky University.

Graduate students receiving a SAFE Award in the amount of $3,400 each are:

Anna Cathleen Barry, University of Kentucky
Jordan Wexler, Murray State University.

Leah Sallee, Murray State University

Four graduate students will be in less than a year. The SAFE Award for those individuals is $1,700 each. They are:

Janelle DeCoursey, Murray State University
Heather Scott, Murray State University

Kevin Geidel, Eastern Kentucky University
Smriti Pande, Eastern Kentucky University.

One graduate student, Christopher Garnett, University of Kentucky, will graduate at the conclusion of the summer semester. His SAFE Award is $1,000.

We thank all applicants, university faculty, KSHN Foundation scholarship committee members, and KSHN Foundation directors who participated in the process.

This scholarship program is recognized by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority and is listed in their "Affording Higher Education" student financial aid listing.

